

2022-2023 High School Completion Status Information

Your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we must ask you to submit documentation and validate the information chosen for verification. The Federal processor has determined that Ramapo College of New Jersey (RCNJ) Office of Financial Aid must validate your High School Completion Status. Therefore, we are required to confirm that the information listed below has been submitted to Office of Financial Aid before we can award you aid. If you have questions about this form, contact our office as soon as possible at (201)684-7549 so that you can avoid delays in your financial aid.

High School Completion Status
